Library suspends Grab and Go service, but curbside and virtual programs will continue

In response to a rise in confirmed COVID-19 cases in Lockhart and Caldwell County, the Dr. Eugene Clark Library is suspending its Grab and Go service and closing its doors to walk-in traffic.

The library has also suspended access to the technology center.

The change goes into effect immediately (Monday, June 29).

The library will continue to offer access to materials, services and technology in the following ways:

Phone service and email: Community members may contact the library information desk by telephone at (512) 398-3223 or via e-mail from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday. For a list of library staff e-mails, visit <https://www.clark-library-lockhart.org/about-us/contact-us>.

Curbside Service: Patrons can call or reserve their material online at <https://clarklibrary.biblionix.com/catalog/> or by phone. To pick up materials, patrons will arrive at the Library, dial the main number, and remain in their vehicles. Pick up hours are 8:30-5 p.m. Monday-Friday. Library staff will bring their materials to curbside-designated parking spots will be located adjacent to the library on Prairie Lea Street.

The library has many online services, including eBooks, downloadable magazines, and audiobooks that are available for free using your library card at <https://clarklibrary.biblionix.com/catalog/>. The library also has a YouTube channel now to which it has added new episodes of Virtual Storytime and allows children to enjoy a Virtual Summer Reading program.
