Two injured in weekend crash

Lockhart, Tx—At around 9:30 p.m. Saturday, November 20, the Lockhart Police Department responded to a crash on the 300 block of SH-20/Blackjack St. One vehicle ran a stop sign while driving north on S. Commerce St. and struck another vehicle traveling east on SH-20/Blackjack St. A 69-year-old woman had serious injuries and had to be transported to the hospital via Starflight. A seven-year-old child also had minor, non-life-threatening injuries.

Investigators do not believe alcohol was involved in the crash. The incident remains under investigation.
